INTERSTATE EXHIBIT.to the Field of Commerce this Morning. A Visit to North Carolina.a strong probability that the Immigration Bureau is connected therewith
and the need of a steady class of farmers with means to buy. Like Virginia, we found they were putting full active and persistent efforts for the increased marketing and marketing of fruits."

MANCHESTER NEWS-Y NOTES.
Chesterfield's Success—Wreck on High-road and Danville—Personals.

Chesterfield county has been awarded several prizes at the Virginia State Fair for the best exhibit of agricultural products, tools, and minerals. Messrs. W. W. Baker, Howard Swineford, and John B. Watkins, to whose energy and enterprise is largely due the great success which Chesterfield has reaped, have been heartily congratulated by residents of the county.

Wednesday morning about 6 o'clock several freight cars were derailed on the Richmond and Danville railroad near Randolph. No one was injured. The track was clear by 10 A. M.

MARRIAGES.

Mr. George L. Nunnally and Miss Lizzie Bangian, both of this city, were married at 8:30 o'clock Wednesday night by Rev. W. A. Vaughan at his residence. A number of the friends of the bride and groom witnessed the ceremony.

Mr. James McCrone and Miss Butler, of this city, were united in marriage Wednesday evening, at 9 o'clock, at the residence of Mr. Oxford, Christadelphian minister of Richmond.

Rumor has it that a popular young minister of this city will lead to the altar a charming young lady of Nelson county in December.

PERSOALS AND BRIEFS.

Mr. J. L. Owens, of Clover Hill, is in Manchester.

Mr. John Jones, of Nansemond county, is visiting in this city.

lady of Lynchburg, is visiting Miss Anna Parker, on Perry street.

Burned Their Own Houses.

At 4:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon an alarm was sent in from Station 12, corner Main and Ash streets, Rockets.
A passing locomotive had set fire to houses Nos. 3215 and 3217 Williamson avenue, owned by the Chesapeake and Ohio railway. The buildings were badly damaged to the extent probably of $400.

General Suspension of Business.

Business was pretty generally suspended yesterday, and that with attending the morning ceremonies or going to the Fair nearly the whole city took holiday. The banks, the exchange, the newspaper offices, the public and private schools, the railroad and steamboat freight depots were closed, and after 11 o'clock Main and Cary streets were almost as quiet as on Sundays.

Personal and Briefs.

Mrs. Newton Argentire, of Staunton, is staying at 714 East Marshall street.

Mrs. Dr. Price, now Miss Emma Lester, of Vienna, Md., arrived in this city yesterday, accompanied by her sister, Miss Lester.

Miss Kitty Bridgeman, of Old Point, and Miss Annie Beardorff of Hampton, are in the city on a visit to their friend Miss Annie Begon, of 701 Church street.

Mr. Jack Gregory, of Lunenburg county, who was one of the most valiant of the members of the Richmond Bureau during the war, and Mr. W. O.
Sylvester, the Staunton agent of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway Company, were in the city yesterday.

Rev. Paul L. Menzel has returned from a visit to Baltimore.

Valentine's studios and art-gallery will be open to strangers in the city today.

W. A. Chambers, of Huntington, W. Va., is visiting T. D. Blount, of this city.

Rev. L. A. Cutler, pastor of the Marshall-Street Christian church, who has been attending the convention in North Carolina, has returned and will preach Sunday morning and night.

Notwithstanding the immense crowd in the city the Police-Court docket yesterday morning contained nothing more serious than a half-dozen charges of drunkenness.

United States Senator John S. Barbour was in the city yesterday to attend the Wickham unveiling. He made a short call on Chairman Elyson.

The United States Court grand jury will to-day consider the charges against B. F. Ferry and wife for using the mails for improper purposes. Judge Waddill and Mr. J. Alston Cabell are counsel for the defense.

The officers of the Veteran Cavalry Association, of which General Fitz Lee is president, will meet at Lee Camp Hall this morning at 10 o'clock to perfect details of the organization.

The Pittsburgh Dispatch, in mentioning the articles of exhibit there, speaks in complimentary terms of the Johnston safe automatic electric devise, by which use of the overhead wires is made harmless. It is the invention of Mr. Langstaff Johnston, of this city.

Misses Bessie and Sadie Tucker, of Raleigh, N. C., and Miss Jessie Keenan, of Wilmington, who has been spending a few days in Richmond in attendance upon the Cameron-Mayo welding and the State Fair, will leave for home this morning. They will be accompanied by Miss Jamie Sutherlin Smith, who will resume her visit to the Misses Tucker.

L. O. G. T.

At Fulton Lodge Good Templars there was a pleasant meeting last night. George W. Hauxwell, grand secretary of Virginia, presided over the meeting, and after the routine business, the following officers were elected for ensuing term: Chief Templar, J. A. Reams; Secretary, Miss Ross Britton; Financial Secretary, Miss Katie Ways; Chaplain, C. R. Seay; Treasurer, Miss Dora See; Guard, Miss Carter Wallford; Marshal, Miss Addie Carter; Sentinel, Mr. R. T.
Woodall, and Lodge Deputy, Miss Addie Carter. Mr. J. A. Reams was elected as delegate, and C. R. Seay as alternate, to Grand Lodge which meets at Suffolk in December.

Tiler—Baker.

Baker, C. Emmett Tiller and Miss Carrie Tiller, both of Henrico county, were married at Fairfield Presbyterian church October 23, 1891. Rev. Mr. Champ officiated.
The church was filled to overflowing by friends of the contracting parties. After the ceremony a reception was given by the father of the groom to the relatives of the two families. The mothers were Messrs. Tahoffer (best man), Tiller, Baker, and Chisholm.

In small agricultural and practical farming, and planting from what we could find, but in the master of local industries her experience and advance in conjunction with the Southern Immigration Association, South Carolina is giving more and more money of immigration than we have been able to do and they are succeeding in securing a good class of immigration and they report just as we do the large surplus of uncultivated lands and the need of a steady class of farmers

with means to buy. Like Virginia, we
persistent efforts for the increased
marketing and marketing of fruits."

Chesterton's Emulsion is cod-liver oil with its fish-fat taste lost—nothing is lost but the taste.

This is more than a matter of comfort. Agreeable taste is always a help to digestion. A sickening taste is always a hindrance.
There is only harm in taking cod-liver oil unless you digest it. Avoid the taste.
